PICTORIAL HISTORY

THE UNITED STATES.

FROM the discovery of America by the Northmen to the present time.—By JAMES FAY, Professor of Belles Lettres of the High School of Philadelphia.—Published by upwards of three hundred original cuts, designed by Croome expressly for this work.—Now in progress of publication, and to be completed in twenty monthly numbers, at the unparalleled low price of twenty-five cents each; the whole forming four octavo volumes.

A full and copious History of the United States for families and libraries, has long been called for by the American people: the publisher has now the pleasure and satisfaction of presenting to the public such a work. It is the result of years of study and research by one of our ablest writers; and in order that the noble deeds and striking scenes connected with our history may be properly depicted, the publisher has engaged the services of a superior and distinguished artist.

In carrying out this undertaking, a great investment of capital has been required, and much mechanical skill employed to render it a work worthy of the admiration of every lover of his country; and one to which every patriot may point as an evidence of the great degree of perfection and refinement our liberal institutions have secured.

The first number appears this day (April 1st), the succeeding ones will appear weekly on the first of each month until the whole is perfected. At the conclusion of each volume, a complete index and title page will be furnished.

The publisher pledges himself that the embellishments in the whole work shall exceed three hundred, and equal those in the first or specimen number in style and execution. The distribution of the pictures will be of course regulated by the subject, some chapters being much more susceptible of rich pictorial embellishments than others. The succeeding parts will contain the same number of pages as this.

Persons at a distance, who are desirous of obtaining this work direct from the publisher, will please send five dollars, free of expense of postage. (Postmasters' stamps can always be obtained for remittances for periodicals), and the whole will be sent—Clubs, by a remittance of ten dollars, will receive three copies; by a remittance of fifteen, five copies. Postage of each number, under an hundred miles, four or one-half cents; upwards of an hundred miles, seven and one-half cents.

Individuals desirous of acting as agents for this work, are advised to make application.
